

---

Director of Quality and Performance Improvement
Alaska Hospital and Healthcare Association (AHHA)

*Are you passionate about improving the health of Alaskans?
Are you motivated to share your expertise with quality leaders across the state?
Do you enjoy taking a leadership role and seeing a plan through to completion?*
If you answers are yes, apply to join our small but mighty team and put your talents to work.

THE COMPANY

For 70 years, the Alaska Hospital & Healthcare Association (AHHA) has served as a non-profit trade association representing Alaska's hospitals, nursing homes, and other healthcare partners across the continuum of care. AHHA members play an invaluable role, both as community providers and essential employers, in cities, towns, and villages across Alaska.

THE POSITION

We're looking for a Director of Quality and Performance Improvement who will lead, develop, implement, and facilitate hospital and nursing home quality and improvement activities to achieve the Quintuple Aim (health equity, clinician well-being, improved outcomes - clinical and patient experience, population health, and cost of care) across the continuum of care statewide.

The successful candidate will provide AHHA members with technical support, including consults, training, and education. The Director will communicate and work closely with members and other stakeholders including conducting site visits, organizing in-person events, and facilitating access to quality improvement/patient safety resources. This position is a critical member of the AHHA team and will work cooperatively and collaboratively within organizations across Alaska. Learn more our quality initiatives on the AHHA quality webpage.

- Bachelor's degree in a clinical or health-related field, with a preference for a master's degree and/or RN credential.
- Five years related work experience including experience in quality or process improvement in a hospital or clinical setting.

WHY SHOULD YOU APPLY

- Make a difference by impacting quality and patient safety throughout Alaska.
- Work with a high-performing team on challenging issues.
- Competitive pay and benefits: Annual salary DOE - range $90,000 - $105,000
Full-time, 5-day work week with flexible/family-friendly hours, health insurance, professional development opportunities, and vacation.

THE LOCATION

The position will be located in either AHHA's Juneau or Anchorage office with the option to work partly from home. Regular travel is required to communities throughout Alaska and to regional or national meetings.

INTERESTED?

Download the full job description for more details. Submit a resume and cover letter as a Word or PDF document to Debbie Lowenthal, <mailto:dlowenthal@alaskahha.org>. If you have any questions, contact us by email or phone 907-723-9826. Position opened until filled. Priority review will be given to applications received by April 7.