ALASKA INFECTION PREVENTION NETWORK MEETINGS

Join the Alaska Infection Prevention Network (AKIPN) and be part of a supportive community for infection prevention health care professionals.

AKIPN hosts semi-monthly virtual meetings the second and fourth Thursday of every month, providing a consistent space for learning, sharing, supporting, growing and connecting with professionals across Alaska. These calls are invaluable opportunities to collaborate and make a difference in infection prevention. Do not miss out! Join us and contribute to our collective mission of promoting health and safety in health care settings.
